

Day Trip to Temples

24th June18

Woolverhampton, Ek Niwas Universal Divine Temple

.Ek Niwas was founded in November 1990 23 years ago, we registered as a charity on the 10th June 1996. The aim of the temple is Through prayers and worship to offer spiritual guidance, healing and uplifting for the unwell and the needy.

After Darshan we will proceed to Birmingham.

Birmingham, Shri Venkateswara (Balaji) Temple of UK

The word "Hindu" is in mediaeval Persian "Hindō," representing the ancient Avesta hendava (Sanskrit- Saindhava), a dweller on the Sindhu or Indus Valley, northern India. The archaeological evidence of 'Harappa' and 'Mohenjo-Daro' from the Indus region indicates a civilisation dating back to 2250BC. Historians suggest that a tribe of Aryans, originally from southern Russia, invaded Indus region around 1750BC and together with the original Dravidian culture laid the foundations of Hinduism.

We will have Prasadam-lunch at Birmingham Temple.

Leicester, Shreeji Dham Haveli

Pushti Nidhi UK have established a Europe's premier Haveli that befits our Thakorji. Set in an urban but tranquil location near the Watermead Country Park in Leicester.

The Haveli is constructed with consideration of community and Pustimarg culture, thus facilitating initially the teaching of shrimad vallabhacharya mahaprabhuji and also serving the local community of Leicester.

Pickup Time: 08.00 East Finchley Station, High Rd, London N2 0NW.

Drop off Time: 20.00 East Finchley Station, High Rd, London N2 0NW.

Price: £15 for BBSL members, £10 children, £25 non members

To book please contact Sarla Modha - 07930 200198, Bhanu Jani - 07876 133520.

Email: Sarla55@hotmail.com

Payment to: A/C 10538861, S/C 11-03-05